

Little Lize

Traditional Cornish

Verse

The oth - er night I had a dream, the fun-ni-est dream of all; I dreamt that I was kiss - ing you, be - hind the gar - den wall. And she said Lit-tle Lize_ I love you, (Hon - ey)

Chorus

Lit tle Lize I love you, I love you in the spring time and the fall. Lit tle Lize I love you, (Hon-ey hon-ey, hon-ey) (Hon- ey)

Lit-tle Lize_ I love you, I love you the best of all. (Hon - ey, hon-ey, hon-ey, hon- ey.)

The other night I had a dream,
The funniest dream of all;
I dreamt that I was kissing you.
Behind the garden wall

And she said
Little eyes I love you (honey)
Little eyes I love you,
I love you in the spring time and the fall;
(honey, honey)
Little eyes I love you
Little eyes I love you
I love you the best of all
(honey, honey, honey)

Oh tell me honey tell me do,
Who is your turtle dove?
Oh tell me honey tell me do,
Who is the one you love?

And she said

I took my honey home last night,
Beneath the spreading pine;
I placed my arms around her waist,
And pressed her lips on mine.

And she said