

Sancreed Beacon

A beautiful historic moorland with stunning views

About Sancreed Beacon

The beacon is a fire that was lit to send a message.

There are two Bronze Age burial sites at the top of the hill.

The ruins of a Bronze Age hut are at the bottom of the hill.

There was mining around Sancreed Beacon in the 1800s.

Things to do at Sancreed Beacon

Sancreed Beacon has great views.

It is a good place for a walk.

You can build dens in the woods at Sancreed Beacon.

You can see lots of wildlife including ponies.

At Sancreed Beacon

Dogs on leads are welcome.

There are no toilets at Sancreed Beacon.

There is no cafe at Sancreed Beacon.

Getting to Sancreed Beacon

Address:

Sancreed,
Penzance
TR20 8QT

The number 8 bus from Penzance goes to the village near Sancreed Beacon.

You can park in the layby.

WHAT3WORDS

What3Words:

///lows.button.riverboat

How to contact Cornwall Heritage Trust

Cornwall Heritage Trust looks after Sancreed Beacon.

Website:

www.cornwallheritagetrust.org

Email:

info@cornwallheritagetrust.org

Post:

Cornwall Heritage Trust
G03, The Percy Williams Building,
Krowji, Redruth, Cornwall
TR15 3GE

Telephone:

01209 707 008

Made by the Sensory Trust (www.sensorytrust.org.uk) for Cornwall Heritage Trust.