Chorus

This system contains the final four measures of the song. It includes the end of the vocal line and the beginning of the chorus. A double bar line with repeat dots is placed at the end of the first measure of this system.

Un-til the Lord calls me to sit at his hand. For this is my Ed-en,— and I'm not a-lone For this is my Corn-wall and this is my home.

I've stood on Cape Cornwall in the sun's evening glow on Chywoone* Hill at Newlyn to watch the fishing fleet go, Watched the sheaved wheels at Geevor as they spun around
 And heard the men singing as went underground

(Chorus)

And no-one will ever move me from this land
 Until the lord calls me to sit at his hand
 For this is my Eden, and I'm not alone,
 For this is my Cornwall and this is my home!

I've left childish footsteps in the soft Sennen sand,
 I've chased the maids down there all giggly and tanned
 I've stood on the cliff top in a westerly blow
 And heard the waves thunder on the rocks far below

(Chorus)

First thing in the morning, on Chapel Carn Brea
 I gaze at the Scillies in the blue far away.
 And this is my Cornwall and I'll tell you why
 Because I was born here and here I shall die

(Chorus) (repeat last line of the chorus – with feeling & slowing!)
